

Course: English 1

credits: 4

Course code ELVP15AENG1
Name English 1
Study year 2020-2021
ECTS credits 4
Language English
Coordinator J.M. Wilson

Modes of delivery Lecture
Assessments English 1 - Written, organised by STAD examinations

Learning outcomes

Students can:

- Make correct use of tenses and active/passive voice.
- Make correct use of adjectives/adverbs.
- Formulate sentences in the correct order.
- State the main point of a short text on the subject of technology/engineering.
- Locate specific information within a text on the subject of technology/engineering.
- Make correct use definite/indefinite articles.
- Correct commonly made mistakes in written texts.

Content

The field of engineering is becoming progressively more internationally orientated. As a result, English-speaking engineers are increasingly in demand by employers. In this study unit, we focus on accuracy, vocabulary, and reading.

Included in programme(s)

Electrical Engineering Major Sensor Technology
Minor Technology to Create
Exchange Technology to Create (autumn)

School(s)

Institute of Engineering

share your talent. move the world.