Learning outcomes

Intended learning outcomes at graduation level:

Core task 4: to realise and deliver

You present an artistic product in an interdisciplinary performance to your audience, target group or client with a clearly defined intended impact on that audience.

You can evaluate, analyse and provide insight into the realisation of the intended impact in a followable way.

In the propaedeutic phase of the Popular Culture programme, the student can partly demonstrate the intended learning outcomes at graduation level; at propaedeutic level. At the end of this module, the student can describe his/her own artistic work and choices made in the artistic process. The student can also formulate an intended impact on the audience.

Content

In project lessons, the student works on a talk show in which the artistic design created is presented.

In the talk show, the student presents the work in 1 minute. In addition, the student describes the intended impact of the final artistic product.
