Content

This course introduces the core principles of strategic procurement and supply chain management from a managerial perspective. Students examine how sourcing and supplier collaboration contribute to organisational value creation in international contexts, supporting an entrepreneurial approach to strategic decision-making. The course has a strong link to sustainability and social impact through its focus on fair, circular, and sustainable purchasing practices, as well as transparency enabled by digital technologies such as blockchain and AI. It aligns most strongly with SDG 12 (Responsible Consumption and Production) and SDG 9 (Industry, Innovation and Infrastructure).
