Learning outcomes

After the course you will be able to do the following at an advanced level:

- 1.1 You master the craft (playing, singing, composing, producing, teaching, conducting etc.) at a professional level.
- 2.1 You demonstrate artistic individuality.
- 5.3 You present yourself, musical work and research in a way that invites dialogue.
- 8.2 You generate interaction with others with musical expressions.

Content

CM

You write and produce music in diverse contexts (composition, media, songwriting, production). With broader frameworks, you develop a clearer personal signature. You collect your work and feedback in a portfolio for assessment.

Windband

You deepen your instrumental mastery through lessons, theory (including instrumentation), and internships/work-based learning. You perform advanced repertoire in new contexts, demonstrate your artistic identity, and learn to collaborate professionally and respond to feedback from practice.

Jazz

You continue developing your instrumental skills and ensemble playing within groups and projects with guest teachers. You work with advanced repertoire in new contexts, express your own style, and learn to respond flexibly to musical interaction and feedback.

Classical

You focus on refining your instrumental and ensemble playing. You perform advanced repertoire in unfamiliar contexts, with attention to artistic expression, ensemble cohesion, and professional communication.

Choir

You develop as a conductor through a practice choir, vocal lessons, and internships. You work with advanced repertoire in new situations, provide artistic leadership, and guide the interaction between choir, music, and environment.
