Content

The student will learn different teaching techniques and methods about how to rehearse with and lead an ensemble. The student will be connected to one of the already existing jazz ensembles from the PCC. Each student will teach the ensemble during 2 lessons. One hour each lesson. In order to prepare these lessons properly, the student will first attend 2 group lessons from the same ensemble given by the regular ensemble teacher.

The student will hand in to the course leader, a report on his/her experience while leading the ensemble. Also there will be a reflective discussion with the group of students that follow the course where experiences are shared. The student will also make video recordings of the 2 lessons in which the student is leading the ensemble and send it to the course leader. At the end of the course the student learned different teaching techniques and methods about how to rehearse with, and how to lead an ensemble.
