Fine Arts and Design in Education

Profile of the programme

This is a Bachelor's degree with a professional orientation applied to the theory and practice of education in fine arts, strongly related to employment. The overall aim of the degree programme is to help students develop their own visual and design skills and gain knowledge on art, culture and aesthetics. Additionally, they receive a high level of teacher training – didactic and educational skills – in the area of visual arts and design. This degree programme distinguishes itself from similar programmes through its unique positioning within Minerva Art Academy. Students have access to and are surrounded by other fine arts students, art exhibitions and cultural festivals/ activities, etc.
