Leeruitkomsten

Main learning outcome:
The student demonstrates an active attitude towards his personal and professional development in the study as well as in the FM work field.

The student:
Has 2 individual talks with his Academic Counsellor and attends all general meetings
Takes part in the activities organized to increase work field awareness and personal and professional development
Reflects on his behaviour during these activities and during the study

Inhoud

By means of general meetings and individual talks the student is guided on the route to development. During this route the student is asked to critically think about his own learning aims and how to increase his ability to function in the FM work field. This can also be done by ad-hoc projects. At the end of year 1 a presentation is given by each student about his development in year 1 personally as well as professionally.
