LeeruitkomstenPLO3: Relationship Management

In this course, students continue to develop foundational skills in the foreign language and a further understanding of the foreign culture to facilitate international business among culturally diverse stakeholders. \

Learning Line: Global mindset and professional development

CLO1: At the A2.2 (upper elementary) CEFR level, students can handle short social exchanges and express themselves in familiar contexts such as shopping, travel, and work. They can describe their surroundings and talk about their likes and dislikes using simple language. They begin to use more varied sentence structures and vocabulary, and can understand short texts and messages.

PLO4: Self-Management

In this course, students strengthen their foundational skills in the foreign language and deepen their understanding of the foreign culture to navigate complex international contexts and enhance their professional self-management.

Learning Line: Global mindset and professional development

CLO1: Students demonstrate understanding of how developing language and cultural skills enhances their self-management and professional effectiveness.

Inhoud

Learning a foreign language helps students become business professionals with a global mindset, as it will allow them to connect with people from another culture. By speaking another language and understanding another culture, they can break down the barriers of communication, putting themselves at a huge advantage as a business professional, next to experiencing a new world view and discovering new concepts.
