LeeruitkomstenPLO3: Relationship Management

In this course, students continue to develop foundational skills in the foreign language and a further understanding of the foreign culture to facilitate international business among culturally diverse stakeholders.

Learning Line: Global mindset and professional development

CLO1: At the A2 (elementary) CEFR level, students can understand sentences and frequently used expressions related to areas of most immediate relevance (e.g. very basic personal and family information, shopping, local geography, emPLOyment). They can communicate in simple and routine tasks requiring a simple and direct exchange of information on familiar and routine matters, and they can describe in simple terms aspects of their background, immediate environment and matters in areas of immediate need.

PLO4: Self-Management

In this course, students strengthen their foundational skills in the foreign language and deepen their understanding of the foreign culture to navigate complex international contexts and enhance their professional self-management.

Learning Line: Global mindset and professional development

CLO1: Students demonstrate understanding of how developing language and cultural skills enhances their self-management and professional effectiveness.

Inhoud

Learning a foreign language helps students become business professionals with a global mindset, as it will allow them to connect with people from another culture. By speaking another language and understanding another culture, they can break down the barriers of communication, putting themselves at a huge advantage as a business professional, next to experiencing a new world view and discovering new concepts.
